

SURVEY RESPONSES:

Total # of respondents: 923

COMMENTS:

What other disability-related information could you benefit from learning about?

More information regarding mental health.

I would like to have more knowledge regarding people with invisible disabilities.

It would be great to know more about self-identifying.

How to provide accommodations and tools for those with disabilities.

What did you like best about the training?

The various examples and scenarios that were presented. It sparked great discussion.

I liked the format and the realistic portrayals of situations. It helped make an impact.

Any additional feedback you would like to provide?

So grateful my company is doing this inclusive series. EVERYONE should come. This makes me proud to work here.

Very informative and thoughtful session.

This training hit on the most important points and used time wisely.

What were the key takeaways from this session?

It's important to acknowledge unconscious bias.

Ask the person!

Don't be nervous. Engage as a human. Act normally. If you say something uncomfortable, apologize and keep moving forward.

What could be done better?

The time allotted seemed short for the subject.

There was not enough time for questions.

Make trainings a two-part training.