COMMENTS:

What other disability-related information could you benefit from learning about? <hr/> More scenarios or tricky situations we may run into. <hr/> I'd like to understand how to better collaborate with benefits counselors. <hr/> Maybe a more detailed class on Medicare/MassHealth OneCare /Commonwealth Care.	What did you like best about the training? <hr/> I like the engagement of the presenters. They were energetic and knowledgeable. <hr/> The pace was good and information was given in a way someone new could understand. <hr/> What could be done better? <hr/> I would have liked less time on technological issues and more in breakouts.	I would have liked the handouts well in advance. <hr/> Any additional feedback you would like to provide? <hr/> I enjoyed this training and am glad I have the tools to help people reach their goals. <hr/> Keep it up. Keep developing more trainings and I'll keep taking them and talking them up. You guys are disseminating very valuable information into the field. I'm not trying to kiss up. It is dangerous to have us	doing this work without a thorough inside and out understanding of these materials. Which is what you guys help provide. <hr/> What were the key takeaways from this session? <hr/> PASS is a great program that can work for a number of people who receive benefits and have a work goal. <hr/> I can encourage more individuals to identify work goals for themselves.
