3. Company Overview:

The Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS) is the largest secretariat in state government and is comprised of 12 agencies, in addition to 2 soldiers' homes and the MassHealth program. Our efforts are focused on the health, resilience, and independence of the one in four residents of the Commonwealth we serve.

The Massachusetts Office on Disability (MOD) works to ensure that people with disabilities can equally participate in all aspects of life in Massachusetts. MOD serves as a resource to state agencies, municipalities, and members of the general public by providing information, guidance and training on matters concerning disability-related civil rights, equal access, and opportunity.

The Office of the Treasurer and Receiver General is committed to excellence in recruiting, hiring, and retaining diverse and qualified individuals. We value the culture of diversity and professionalism in the workplace, and strongly believe that our workforce should reflect our community.

7. Brief description of your company's diversity and inclusion initiatives, accolades, etc.:

The Commonwealth is committed to ensuring a diverse and inclusive workplace where all employees feel respected, valued, and empowered to maximize their skills and talents to serve our citizens. We strive to reflect diversity in all government activities, programs, and services regardless of race, creed, color, religion, national origin, sex, sexual orientation, gender identity, age, or disability status. Throughout the fabric of the Commonwealth, diversity and inclusion are the threads with which we weave the tapestry of cultural inclusion for our employees and the citizens of Massachusetts to see and experience. Equal Employment Opportunity (EEO), Affirmative Action (AA) and Diversity are critical components in creating an inclusive work environment. Each of our agencies foster these ideals by providing a biannual Diversity Plan and biannual AA Plan. Throughout the year the Diversity Officers report quarterly on the efforts of the agencies and the efficiency of the plans.

8. Brief description of company culture

EHS is a division within the Executive Office of Health and Human Services (EOHHS). The agency provides administrative support to all EOHHS agencies.
